CP CONCURS WITH DOJ COMMENT AFFIRMING ANTICOMPETITIVE NATURE OF CN BID FOR KCS

DOJ Says CN Bid for KCS “appears to pose greater risks to competition than CP agreement”

CP-KCS Remains Only Class 1 Transaction with Ability to Close into Voting Trust

CALGARY – May 14, 2021 – Canadian Pacific Railway Limited (TSX: CP) (NYSE: CP) (“CP”) today issued the following statement in response to the Department of Justice (“DOJ”) filing with the Surface Transportation Board (“STB”) regarding Canadian National’s (“CN”) proposed use of a voting trust in connection with its proposed combination with Kansas City Southern (“KCS”).

CP concurs with the DOJ’s objection to CN’s proposed use of a voting trust on the grounds that a CN merger with KCS would pose greater risks to competition than the CP-KCS agreement. The filing notes: “A CN-KCS transaction poses additional dangers to competition stemming from the potential elimination of direct, ‘parallel’ competition on routes served by both railroads, for example between Baton Rouge and New Orleans.” CN’s proposed use of a voting trust would create “threats to competition [that] would be present immediately after the CN voting trust is consummated.” And, DOJ added, “[i]t is particularly important to protect” the incentives of CN and KCS “to compete where, as here, CN and KCS appear to compete head-to-head on multiple parallel routes.”

The filing continues: “On May 6, 2021, the Board approved the proposed CP-KCS voting trust in Finance Docket No. 36500. Notwithstanding this decision, the Board should not permit the proposed CN voting trust because CN’s proposed acquisition of KCS appears to pose greater risks to competition than the risks posed by a CP-KCS merger.”

The DOJ’s position is consistent with CP’s assessment that CN’s proposal is illusory and offers unattainable value to KCS’ shareholders.

CP remains confident its friendly agreement is the only viable merger for KCS, as already validated by two favorable rulings by the STB. The STB approved CP’s use of a voting trust and affirmed KCS’ waiver from the new rail merger rules it adopted in 2001 because a CP-KCS combination is truly end-to-end, pro-competitive and together they would remain the smallest Class 1 railway.
